

Courtesy Call by Kyambogo University Vice-Chancellor

A delegation from Kyambogo University situated in Uganda paid a courtesy call to SWA Director, Prof. Jackson Maalu on January 11th 2018. The delegation, led by the university's Vice-Chancellor Prof. Eli Katunga Rwakishaya together with the university secretary Mr. Charles Okello were on an educative tour of the University of Nairobi.

During the meeting with SWA management, Prof. Rwakishaya commended that there was a whole authority mandated to look after the welfare of students. He noted that students are the major stakeholders and that their interests should be well taken care of and looked into. Prof. Rwakishaya was briefed on; the various operations that SWA undertakes, SWA structure and SWA core business that is catering and accommodation.

Kyambogo University VC Prof. Eli Katunga Rwakishaya was taken on a tour of the halls of residence and SMU offices and shown the various operations that the offices carry out. He highly praised the level of cleanliness upheld in the halls of residence.